

JOB DESCRIPTION

Job title
Environmental Manager
Name of person or job role reporting to
Team Leader
Responsibilities
Construction phase Environment and Consents Management - <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Provide projects with environmental leadership, including assisting with environmental awareness training of professional staff, construction managers and operatives</li><li>• Co-ordinate/Write, update, review and advise on compliance with the project Construction Environmental Management Plan, Site Waste Management Plan, other relevant environmental management plans and associated documentation</li><li>• Project manage and work with a range of environmental technical specialists that will be needed to support certain environmental licence applications or project needs</li><li>• Manage the discharge of environmental planning conditions/ Section 36/Section 37 requirements throughout the entire construction project.</li><li>• Advise on site compliance with S36/S37 requirements/ planning conditions/consents conditions throughout construction through regular environmental inspections</li><li>• Maintain project environmental consents register and ensure all required consents are applied for in accordance with the project programme</li><li>• Carry out regular environmental inspections of design and construction activities</li><li>• Manage and co-ordinate the application, negotiation and implementation of all necessary environment-related consents and licences, including highways and traffic issues</li><li>• Compile and present sustainability, environmental and consents performance reports, as appropriate, in line with project KPIs and other objectives, e.g. energy and water consumption, and waste management. Effectively deal with statutory consultees, interest groups and the general public</li><li>• Project Manage the need for additional environmental works on a project, through coordination of quotes from RSK or third-party environmental specialists; writing Early Warning Notices; submitting the information needed for Compensation Event Claims; in addition to reviewing/submitting RSK RAMS and organising site access, inductions etc for environmental specialists</li><li>• Compliance with client's sustainability policies, objectives and more detailed requirements, including any ISO14001 Environmental Management System in place, and make sure that they are implemented throughout the design, construction and commissioning stages of the project</li><li>• To ensure maximum flexibility and to reflect the Company's evolving needs, you may be asked to perform additional tasks that may be reasonably expected within your level of capability without additional remuneration.</li></ul>
Qualifications/Experience
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• A thorough understanding of environmental issues on site e.g. pollution control, ecology, noise, air quality, materials/waste management and environmental auditing.</li><li>• Professional membership preferable e.g. MIEMA or equivalent</li><li>• CSCS card</li><li>• Sufficient years' experience of working in a site-based environment on major</li></ul> construction projects.

- A good understanding of typical environmental contractual and regulatory requirements.
- Health and safety ethos, good personal management, communication and negotiation skills and an appreciation of what is practical and achievable.
- Confident at environmental decision making and working under pressure, as well communicating the environmental requirements of the project and facilitating a better understanding of these requirements at project meetings.
- Equally, strong communication with RSK's environmental technical teams will be required, to ensure the best technical solutions for the project are found and implemented.

I hereby agree that I have read and understood the job description.

Signed

Date

Name